JENNIFER ROBINS announces the release of her newest novel, Emily's Other Face

Jennifer Robins took up writing about the paranormal after a long time in the business world. She attended Cuyahoga Community College in Ohio (TriC). Her interest in the unexplained we live with has taken her to some intense research of many intriguing subjects. These findings have inspired her to write the stories she puts into words for others to enjoy. She lives with her husband and a few wonderful pets, spends time with her grown family, loves to write, paint in oils and play the piano.

Jennifer has authored over 20 novels. Visit Jennifer to learn more at www.jenniferrobins.com

What's happening while she sleeps? Could she be sleep walking, or is there something sinister going on? She was told by a doctor, she has multiple personalities but there is another unexpected surprise for her about what's been happening to her. It will take a gifted Psychic to help her find out.
